TITLE I FAMILY PARTICIPATION SCHOOL - PARENT - STUDENT COMPACT UNION MIDDLE SCHOOL Reviewed/Revised on 04/18/2023

The Union Middle School Parent Compact is developed jointly with family members, staff, administration, and community members. The compact describes how parents, all school staff, and students will share responsibility for improving student academic achievement and the means by which the school and families will build and develop partnerships to help children achieve goals. high state standards.(ESSA, Section 1116(d)).

School

The school understands the importance of the school experience for each student and their role as educators and role models. Therefore, the school undertakes to carry out the following responsibilities to the best of its ability:

- Provide high-quality, state-required curriculum and instruction in an effective and supportive learning environment that enables children served under this part to meet the challenging academic standards of the state of Pennsylvania.
- Address the importance of ongoing teacher-parent communication through, at a minimum:
 - parent-teacher conferences/meetings in primary schools, at least once a year, during which the compact will be discussed in relation to the child's individual achievement
 - frequent reports to parents about their children's progress;
 - reasonable access to staff, opportunities to volunteer and participate in your child's class, and observation of classroom activities; and
 - Ensure regular and meaningful two-way communication between family members and school staff and, to the extent possible, in a language that family members can understand. (required)(ESSA, Section 1116(d)(1-2))
- Treat each child with dignity and respect.
- Strive to address individual student needs.
- Recognize that parents are vital to the success of the child and the school.
- Provide a safe, positive and healthy learning environment.
- Ensure every student's access to quality learning experiences
- Ensure that school staff communicate clear performance expectations to both students and parents.

Father

The parent/family understands that participation in their student's education will help promote positive achievement and attitude. Therefore, the parent will continue to carry out the following responsibilities to the best of his or her ability:

- Volunteer in your child's classroom
- Supporting your children's learning
- Participate, as appropriate, in decisions related to your child's education and the positive use of extracurricular time
- Create a home environment that supports learning.
- Send student to school on time, well fed and well rested regularly
- Attend school functions and conferences.
- Encourage your child to show respect for all members of the school community and school property.
- Review all communications from the school and respond promptly

Student

The student realizes that education is important. They are responsible for their own success. Therefore, they undertake to carry out the following to the best of their ability:

- Arrive at school on time every day.
- Develop a positive attitude towards school.
- Be responsible for completing the task on time.
- Be cooperative by following the teacher's instructions and ask for help when necessary
- Do daily work that is orderly and reflects the student's best effort.
- Be respectful of all school members and school property.
